

AMBASSADOR MARSHALL GREEN

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Background
Born and Raised in Mass.
Yale University
Japan, Tokyo - Secretary to Ambassador Grew	1939-1941
Ambassador Grew
"Magic" and the Japanese code
Japan environment
Relations with Japanese
US Navy, World War II	1941-1945
Japanese language training
Office of Naval Intelligence, Washington, DC
New Zealand, Wellington	1945-1947
Second Secretary
Department of State, Bureau of Far Eastern Affairs,	1947-1950
Japan Desk
George Kennan's Japan trip
General MacArthur
"Purge Program"
Korean War
Stockholm, Sweden-Political Officer	1950-1955
National War College	1955-1956
Department of State	1955-1959
Japan Desk Officer	1956-1959
Deputy Asst. Secy. of State, Far East	1959-
Asst. Secy. Walter Robertson
US-Japan Security Treaty (1960)
US Bases Issues-Okinawa and Japan
The Ryukyus
Regional Planning Advisor
Japan-USS.R. (Kurile Islands)
Korea, Seoul-Counselor	1959-1961
Hong Kong-Consul General	1961-1963

Department of State-Deputy Asst. Secy. for Far East
Northeast Asia Issues
Relations with Japan

Indonesia, Djakarta-Ambassador

1965-1969

Department of State-Asst. Secy. of State, East Asian Affairs

1969-1973

"The Nixon Doctrine"
Kissinger, State, and the Far East
China and Japan
Ryukyu Issue
US- China Poker
Nixon's Visit
Japanese bureaucracy
Korea-Japan relations
Japan-US Issues and relations

Australia, Canberra-Ambassador

1973-1975

Vietnam issue
Labor Government and US Relations
Prime Minister Whitlam's visit to US
Diego Garcia issue