

MARC E. NICHOLSON

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Background

- Born and raised in California
- Movie industry
- Dartmouth College, Yale University
- US Army
- Entered the Foreign Service in 1975

Brasilia, Brazil: Consular/Political Officer

1975-1977

- Brasilia complex
- Ambassador John Crimmins
- Government
- Anti narcotics program
- Consular functions
- Brazilian military
- Reporting
- Guerrilla movements
- Foreign Ministry
- Local views of Brasilia
- Sao Paulo
- Kissinger visit
- U.S. Human Rights Report
- Brazilian military sales
- Brazil/German nuclear power project

State Department: Intelligence and Research Bureau: Current Intelligence Staff (INR Watch Office)

1977-1979

- Operations Center
- Operations
- Secretary's Daily Summary
- "Tough targets"
- Information sources

State Department: Office of Political-Military Affairs (DCA)

1979-1980

- Strategic Arms Control Negotiations
- Salt II treaty
 - Senate opposition
 - Pros and Cons
- Duties
- Government agency coordination
- "Backfire" bomber
- Strobe Talbott

Lisbon Portugal: Political Officer Relations Lajes Base Agreement Southern Africa Angola Frank Carlucci Political Parties Prime Minister Pinto Balsemao Mario Soares Government Communists Portugal/Spain relations NATO Brazil Portuguese communities in US Portuguese diaspora Economy Foreign investment UNITA (National Union for Total Independence for Angola) African communities in Portugal Mozambique	1980-1983
State Department: Portugal Desk Officer Lajes Base Negotiations Azores and Madeira President Reagan visit	1983-1985
State Department: Intelligence and Research; Coordinator, State and Intelligence Community Aerial and naval activities Areas of activity Degree of risk Working with the Pentagon Limitations of aircraft surveillance Soviets Qadhafi KAL flight	1985-1987
State Department, FSI: Thai language study	1987-1988
Bangkok, Thailand; Political/Military Officer Government World War II history Vietnam Military cooperation	1988-1991

- Thai military - Burmese border - Laotian border - Cambodia - Royal family - Thai personality - Relations - Environment - Drugs - China - Military Coup - Bilateral military exercises (Cobra Gold) - Post-coup military relationship
State Department: Deputy Director, Office of Political–Military Affairs	1991-1993
- Haiti - Military Assistance - Economy - US policy re military weapons in Latin America - A-6 aircraft for Argentina - British concerns - US arms controls - Anti-narcotic efforts - East Asia Military Assistance Programs - Taiwan - Philippine Air Force Base - North Korea
Assistant to Senator Jim Jeffords of Vermont: Pearson Program	1993-1994
- Operations - Senator Jeffords’ political orientation - US intervention in Balkans - Foreign Relations Committee - Staff - Senator’s workload - Cuba visit - Castro - Cuban embargo - Foreign lobbyists
State Department; INR: Analyst; Thailand, Burma and Cambodia	1994-1995
- Khmer Rouge - Burma opium
Bangkok, Thailand: Political Officer	1995-1998
Government

Military
Ambassador Will Itoh
President Clinton visit
Border issues
Refugees
Insurgent groups
Burma
Cambodia civil war
Assistance to Embassy Phnom Penh
Laos
China
Japanese investment
India
General Suchinda Kraprayoon
The King
Economic depression
Living environment
Drugs
Sex industry
AIDS

Brasilia, Brazil: Counselor for Environmental, Scientific and Technological Affairs

1998-2000

Brasilia city
Living environment
Illegal logging
Amazon region management
Rubber industry
USAID
Operations
NASA atmospheric research
International Space Station
“Environmental Hub” concept

Retirement

2000

When Actually Employed work with State Department