

EARL J. WILSON

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Background

- WWII

- Joining USIA forerunner

Shanghai

- USIS program in China

- Wireless file

- Library program

- Audiovisual program

- Artists

- Art exhibits

- USIS poster program: Its Effectiveness

- Visit to the University

- Branch Post Visits

- Communists in the Universities

- Madman comes to call

- Approach of the communists

- Communists take Shanghai

- Fall of the Bamboo Curtain

- Life under the Communists

Washington, DC

- Regional Production Center Idea

- First RPC products and their effectiveness

- The Korean War

- Free World Magazine and its impact

- World photo review

- Anti-communist material used effectively in Philippines

- Agricultural leaflet

- RPC expands

- East Berlin/Europe

- Psychological Indoctrination program in Thailand

- Films in Thailand

- Mobile teams sent out to rural villages

- First US trade fair/Bangkok

- Policy planning at USIA

- TIE reports

- Status of women

- Global psychological objectives

- Citizenship education program

- Trying to promote CEP in the agency

First CEP pamphlet
Development of RSC/Mexico
Bases of freedom: CEP in variant form rekindles – then dies

Mexico – teaching English by TV
Promotion panel
CEP survey

National War College
NWC research paper

Hong Kong
CEP Korea
Desalinization

Madrid
Lost H-bombs

Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia
Vietnam visit
Target audiences/Ops room
A mural
Drug info
Photo from the moon
Riot in Kuala Lumpur
Batik painting/ back to the agency
More on CEP program
CINCPAC assignment

Cambodia
Dress code
Military magazine