

AMBASSADOR ROBERT F. WOODWARD
INTERVIEW II - 1990

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Division of American Republic Affairs	1938-1942
Taco Somoza of Nicaragua
Good Neighbor Policy
West Coast Affairs
U.S. influence in Latin America
Fear of communism
Summer Wells
“Bicycle Revolution” in Bolivia
George Messersmith
Walter Donnelly
Commerce and State foreign service amalgamation
Outbreak of World War II and effects on relations
La Paz, Bolivia	1942-1944
Bolivia’s liberal mining law controversy
Break in relations
In charge of mission
Movimiento Nacional Revolucionario (MNR)
Arva Warren – evacuation of Germans and Japanese
Acting chief of Office of North West Coast Affairs	1944
Hochschild kidnapping
Guatemala	1944-1946
Military coup d’etat
Elections and constitutional convention
Spruille Braden emissary to inauguration
Visit of Roy Tasco Davis
Earthquake
Havana, Cuba	1946-1947
Deputy chief of mission
Ambassador Harry Norweb (and wife)
Herbert Hoover visit
Communism and Fidel Castro
Deputy Director of American Republic Affairs	1947-1949
Spruille Braden and his anti-Peron campaign
Cubans plot to overthrow Trujillo
Mob violence in Bogota during OAS conference

McCarthy
Workings of Bureau

National War College 1949-1950

Stockholm, Sweden 1950-1952

DCM to Walton Butterworth
Chargé but no extra pay
Swedish steel and ball-bearings
Ralph Bunche replaces Count Bernadotte

Chief of Foreign Service Personnel 1952-1953

Cohn and Schine pair
Dulles and McCarthy
Communist witch hunt
John Patton Davies
Jack Cabot
Henry Holland
CIA Honduras plot against Arbenz in Guatemala