

AMBASSADOR SAMUEL CLIFFORD ADAMS, JR.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Background
Born and raised in Houston, Texas
Growing up
Fish University
University of Houston
Plantation Society
Mr. Cleveland
Henry Ford
Norfolk Navy Yard – World War II
Saigon, Vietnam – U.S. Mission to Indochina	1952-1955
“Adoption” by Vietnamese
French in Hanoi
Travels in area
Phnom Penh, Cambodia – International Cooperation Administration [ICA] – Education Office – Chief	1955-1957
Angkor Wat
U.S. policy
King of Cambodia decoration
London, England – University of London	1957-1958
Southeast Asia and African language studies
Lagos, Nigeria – AID – Chief Education Advisor	1958-1960
Bamako, Mali	1961-1963
British
Travels in area
Nigeria
Rabat, Morocco – AID – Director	1965-1967
Training of farmers
Green Revolution
Military
USUN – General Assembly	1967-1968
Niger – Ambassador	1968-1969
Johnson Civil Rights Programs

State Department – AID - Africa Bureau – Director Sahel drought	1969-1975
Distinguished Honor Award	1972
Retirement	1975
Houston Committee on Foreign Affairs Recollections Records accumulated Marguerite Johnson	