

EDWARD ALEXANDER

TABLE OF CONTENTS

1950: Entrance into VOA After PsyWar Film Production Experience
Alexander Organizes VOA Foreign Language Broadcast Section for Southwest and South Central USSR

Alexander Becomes Chief of Armenian Service Operating Procedures and Progress of Armenian Service

VOA Moves to Washington: 1954
Horrors of the McCarthy Period
Putting Together the Armenian Service

News Program: 1954

Alexander Goes to West Berlin (RIAS): 1959
The Alexander Organized Festival of Music at RIAS

1965-1969: Changes of Career From Radio to USIA Foreign Service--Budapest
Hungarian Demands for Return of Hungarian Royal Crown
Violent Protests Over U.S. Role in Vietnam War
Cardinal Mindszenty's Safe Haven in U.S. Legation-Embassy
Isaac Stern Shows Up Unexpectedly in Budapest
U.S. Actor Kirk Douglas Visits Budapest
By Happy Accident, Kirk Douglas Meets Janos Kadar
Alexander Manages to Open USIS Library and Show Films There

After A Washington Tour, Assignment As PAO, East Berlin: 1976-1979
Contrasts Between Hungary and East Berlin Service
Getting Permission for East Germans to Put on Dresden Art Exhibit in Washington
Won Opportunity for Alexander to Put On Several USIS Shows in East Germany
Establishment of USIS Library in East Berlin:
Subsequent Harassment
Admiration for John Sherman Cooper as Ambassador
Accomplishing Arrangements for Exchanges
Alexander Scores an Unexpected Contact with Head of East German Agitation and Propaganda Department of Central Communist Committee
The Value of Knowing the Host Country Language