

ROBERT C. AMERSON

TABLE OF CONTENTS

General Background

Immediate post-college position at General Mills: Entree to USIA

Early USIA Assignment to Caracas

Receptivity of Venezuelan Media to USIA Output

Inauguration of a USIS Sponsored and Oriented TV Program

Preface to Revolution That Overthrew Perez Jimenez Regime

The Actual Downfall and Flight of Perez Jimenez

Embassy USIS contacts with media helped U.S. relations during post-revolution period

Vice President Nixon Visit

Past American "coziness" with Perez Jimenez regime spark anti-Nixon riots

Assignment to Italy

An Academic Interlude in Bologna

Kennedy Trip to Italy -- And Europe

Lyndon Johnson's Visits to Italy as Vice President

Other Prominent Visitors in Rome, e.g., Elizabeth Taylor and Richard Burton

First Country PAO Assignment:

Colombia As It Was In 1960s

Washington Assignment, Department of State:

P.A. Advisor to Latin American Bureau (ARA) 1966

Assistant Director of USIA for Latin America 1968

The Problems Incidental to the Chilean Experience

Relations Between Area Directors and Media Heads

Cultural-Informational Relations

CPAO: Madrid

Different From Latin America

PAO: Rome 1973

Memories: Recalling the Earlier Terrorism Problems in Bogota

Early Terrorism in Rome

Murrow Fellow at Fletcher School