

BURNETT ANDERSON

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Experience Prior to Federal Government Employment

1951: Entrance Into U.S. Government Information Work
The Marshall Plan

1954: Brought Into USIA in Washington

Deputy Director USIA Press and Publication Service

Trials and Ultimate Success - Birth of Post-War Magazine "Amerika"

1957: Assignment as PAO and Counselor of Embassy in Tehran

Anderson Selected for National War College 1957, But Postponed it Until 1960

During Which Time Received President Eisenhower Visit And a Short Visit by Ed Murrow

Murrow's Visit Probably Led (1961) to Anderson's Assignment To Special Inter-Agency Group
Study on Counterinsurgency

And to Associate Deputy Director, USIA, for Policy & Plans

The Cuban Missile Crisis - 1962, And --
Temporary Assignment to VOA to Coordinate All Output Regarding the Crisis

Return to Regular Policy/Plans Assignment. Preparation of Weekly Report
From Murrow to White House

1964: Deputy Director USIA: Policy and Plans

1967: Public Affairs Officer - Spain
Problems as Transition from Franco Era Approached

1969: Transfer to Paris as Director, USIS France

1967: Transfer to London as Head of USIS U.K.

Post-Retirement Activities