

MARGUERITE ANDERSON

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Mrs. Anderson describes her experience as the wife of a Foreign Service Officer

Background

Born in Canada, raised in Canada and France
Advent of World War II
Evacuation to US by ship convoy
Marriage to US Foreign Service Officer
Pine Manor, Dana Hall, Katharine Gibbs and Wellesley College

Washington, DC	1940
Toronto, Canada	1941
Lesson in protocol
Washington, DC	1941
Awaiting husband's assignment
Montevideo, Uruguay	1942-1947
Wartime travel en route
Ship carrying household effects sunk
Housing
Environment
USO
Rio de Janeiro, Brazil	1947-1950
Living conditions
Environment
Bogotá, Colombia	1950-1953
Foreign Ministers Conference
Emerald mining
Geography
German orphans
Fruit, vegetables and fish
Environment
Panama Canal history
Institute of International Education (IIE), Denver, Colorado	1953
Foreign grantees
Purpose of organization
Operations

Manila, Philippines	1953-1956
Housing
President Magsaysay's death
Environment
Schooling
Caviti Naval Base
Poverty
Treasurer, Boys Town
Bamboo organ
Philippine embroidery
Clark Field
Huk Balahops
Colonel Lansdale
Mrs. Imelda Marcos
Subic Bay
Typhoid fever
Washington, DC	1956-1961
Family
Meridian House teenage party
Rio de Janeiro, Brazil	1961-1964
Jim Jones saga
American school
Treasurer, American Women's Club
Douglas Frisch exploits
Local social customs
Booker T. Pitman
The "ugly American"
Russian exhibition
Russian funeral
Explaining US political system
Some recollections of life in the Foreign Service
Possessions lost on torpedoed ship
Evening purse
Colombian emerald mining
Brazil gold mines
Colombia gold museum
Gold fish hook
Dinner for Monsignor McClaferty (Colombia)
Chairs from German spies
Bowties
Cooking ducks

New York City: Wife of Special Assistant to Governor Rockefeller

Waldorf Astoria dinner for Liberian president and wife

Rockefeller's charisma

President Magsaysay's charisma

Pocantico Hills estate

Duties

Professional demonstrators

Prince Philip visit

Belgian Queen Fabiola visit