

NICHOLAS ANDREWS

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Background

Born in Rumania of American parents
Educated in England, US and Princeton
Military intelligence, US Army WWII
Entered Foreign Service 1950
Posts Frankfurt and Berlin
Serbo-Croatian language training and Columbia University

Belgrade, Yugoslavia	1958
Sarajevo, Yugoslavia	1959-1961
Few US interests
Some Yugoslav political problems
Muslims not very active
Communist influence
Ethnic rivalries
Department of State	1962-1965
Bulgaria-Albania desk officer
Yugoslavia desk officer
Ambassador Eugenie Anderson
Bulgaria's fear of Turkey and Greece
Tito's visit to US not a complete success
Tito's Non-aligned Meeting in Belgrade
Tito's anti-American speech
Ankara, Turkey	1965-1968
Political officer
Threat of Turkish intervention in Cyprus
Vance efforts to calm situation
Greek-Turkish rivalry
Warsaw, Poland	1968-1971
Political counselor
Ambassador. Walter Stoessel
Rise of anti-Semitism
Polish-German treaty on the Oder-Neisse border
Poland's political and economic problems
Gomulka voted out, Gierek voted in Easing of restrictions after Gomulka's defeat

Washington D.C. Senior Seminar Office of Science and Technology, the White House	1971-1973
Department of State Deputy Director, Office of Northern European Affairs Keflavik Air Base on Iceland agreement Eastern European Affairs Poland first in importance Dealing with Romania under Ceausescu Bankers close window on East Europe Hungary and the Crown of St. Steven	1973-1978
Warsaw, Poland Deputy Chief of Mission Visits of American businessmen Little embassy contact with dissidents Strikes and inflation Poland's internal politics	1979-1981