

LOUISE SCHAFFNER ARMSTRONG

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Background

Born Martha Louise Schaffner in Japan
American Missionary Parents
Raised in Lancaster PA and Japan
Wellesley College
Researcher for Time and Life
Clare Booth Luce
Joined the Foreign Service 1943

Madras, India; Consular Officer 1944 -1947

Environment
British influence
Missionaries
Gandhi
Consular invoices
Reporting
Social life
Foreign Service Examination
American seamen
Indian Independence

Commissioned as Foreign Service Officer 1947

Prague, Czechoslovakia; Rotation Officer 1948-1949

Coup d'etat
Environment
Contacts
Declared persona non grata
Czech claims against Armstrong (Schaffner)
Political reporting
Masaryk death
Communist influence

Palermo, Italy; Consular Officer 1949-1950

Citizenship cases
Mafia
Visas
Environment
Marauders
Personalities

Further Comments on India
Official travel in India
India skills
Contacts
Missionaries
Charity
Madras environment
Ashram visits
Pondicherry visit
Language
Mysore jungle
Women

Further Comments on Prague
Anti-American environment
Living accommodations
Security
Czech informers
Police harassment
Auschwitz visit

Montreal, Canada; Vice Consul; Economic/Commercial Officer 1950-1953
Markets
Environment
Social life

Ottawa, Canada; 1953-1955
Anti-Americanism
French Canadians
Industry
American products
US "Cultural Invasion"

Geneva, Switzerland; INR representative to Tariff Conference 1956
Italians and Austrians

University of California, Berkeley; Advanced Economic Study 1956-1957

State Department; United Kingdom and Canada Affairs 1957-1959
Canadian issues

Marriage and Resignation 1959
Married Willis Armstrong, FSO

Ottawa, Canada; Wife of Deputy Chief of Mission 1959-1962
Ambassador and Staff

Environment

Relations

Canadian officials

Environmental issues

President Kennedy's visit

Estimation of John Diefenbaker

Sharing military defense