

AMBASSADOR HARRIET C. BABBITT

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Background

Born in West Virginia; raised in Texas
University Americas (Mexico City College); University of Texas;
Sweet Briar College; University of Madrid, Spain; Arizona State University
Travels in Europe
Marriage

Law Practice in Phoenix, Arizona 1973-1986

Equal Rights Amendment
Husband Bruce Babbitt elected Attorney General of Arizona
Husband becomes Governor of Arizona (1977)
Latino population
Democratic politics
Board of the National Democratic Institute

Husband's bid for Presidential nomination 1986

Iowa campaign
Japanese trade issue
New Hampshire campaign

Resumed law practice in Phoenix 1986-1992

Member, Board of National Democratic Institute for International Affairs
National Democratic Institute (Chile Plebiscite)
Foreign Election monitoring
Cuba (spy accusation)
New Articles re Cuba
Relationship with the Clintons
Co-Chair, Clinton campaign in Arizona

Husband Bruce Babbitt appointed US Secretary of the Interior 1992

US Ambassador to the Organization of American States (OAS) 1993-1997

Sarah Horsey Barr
Latin American Colleagues
Settling in
Guatemala coup
Mexico's role
Monitoring elections
Baena Soares, Secretary General
Anti-Corruption convention
Small Arms Trafficking Convention

Unilateral Drug Certification
Helms-Burton legislation
Cuba
Human Rights Commission
Assessment of OAS
War over Upper Cenepa Valley
Fujimori
US invasion of Haiti
Aristide

Deputy to the Administrator of AID	1997-2001
AID Personnel
Jesse Helms
Embassy security
Operating problems
Relations with State Department
Woodrow Wilson Center, Senior Public Policy Scholar	2001-
Senior Vice President, Hunt Alternatives Fund
Women Waging Peace	