

WILLIAM BACCHUS AND THOMAS STERN

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Background

Personnel Policies

- Bill Crockett's reforms
- Generalists versus specialists
- The Macomber period
- The Murphy Commission
- Wristonization
- Foreign Service selection process
- Mandatory retirement policies
- Role of the American Foreign Service Association
- Junior Officers
- Career designations
- Effects of media on management
- Education and Foreign Service courses
- Recruitment process and minorities
- Comparing Foreign Service systems in other countries
- Importance of hardship posts Bidding for positions

Conclusion

- Current direction of personnel