

MILTON BARALL

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Background

Youth in New York
City College BA/MA
PhD at NYU
Army service in WW II
Value of experience in Army
Entrance into Foreign Service
Impression of FS personnel

Santiago

1948-1950

Administrative Officer
Differences between State and Defense
Situation in Chile
Impression of Claude Bowers
U.S. interests in Antarctica

Washington

1950-1954

Officer in charge of Chile, Peru and Bolivia
U.S. interests in South America
Chilean –U.S. trade disputes
Role of copper companies in U.S. policy
Situation in Bolivia
U.S. interests in Bolivia
Importance of Soviet Union in U.S. foreign Policy
Problem of dealing with Senator McCarthy

Haiti

1954-1956

DCM
Origin of assignment
Impression of Ambassador Davis
American interests in Haiti
U.S. control over Haiti

Madrid

1957-1960

Economic Counselor
Impression of AID operation
Importance of Opus Dei in Spanish government
U.S. military bases in Spain
U.S. policy interests in Spain
Devaluation of the peseta
Prospects for Spain in late 1950s

Deputy Assistant Secretary for Economics in ARA	1960-192
Origin of appointment
Evaluation of the inter-American Bank
U.S. policy toward Latin American under Kennedy
Nature of work
The Alliance for Progress
ARA Bureau	1964-1967
Representative to Alliance for Progress and OAS
The Nine Wise Men
Congress and the Alliance for Progress
Role of lending institution
Evaluation of Alliance for Progress
Johnson Administration and the Alliance for Progress
U.S. intervention in the Dominican Republic
ARA Bureau	1967-1969
Head of Caribbean Study group
Conclusions about U.S. policy
Buenos Aires	1969-1971
DCM
Origin of assignment
Situation in Argentina
U.S. policy interests in Argentina
Impact of Peronism
Relationships between Argentine military and government
Conclusion
A career in the Foreign Service	