

PARTRICIA M. BARTZ

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Mrs. Bartz was born Patricia McBride in Victoria, Australia in 1921. In 1948 she married USIS Foreign Service Officer Carl Frederick Bartz and accompanied him on his assignments in Washington, DC and abroad

Background

Born in Victoria, Australia
University of Melbourne; University of California, Berkeley

Professional Experience

Professor, University of Melbourne, Australia
Professor, University of California, Berkeley
Professor, University of California Extension Service
Professional photographer

Seoul, Korea

1950-1952

North Korea invasion
American military involvement
Military families begin evacuation
Housing compound attacked
“Sunset for Dependents”
Evacuation by freighter
Lack of advice or preparation
Women and children
Lack of food and medicines
Pandemonium
Rearranging shifting cargo
Arrival in Japan
Red Cross reception
Embassy personnel evacuated

Tokyo, Japan (evacuation)

Work with G-2 as cartographer
Husband in Pusan
Korean War progress

Home leave: (San Francisco, Texas, Australia)

1952

President Truman recalls MacArthur
Family
Birth of daughter

Comments on evacuation planning and execution

Tokyo, Japan	1952-1957
Naha, Okinawa Military occupation	1957-1960
Rangoon, Burma Bloodless coup	1960-1963
Washington, DC	1963-1967
Seoul, Korea Syngman Rhee	1967-1972
Karachi, Pakistan	1972-1974
Washington, DC	1974-1983