

AMBASSADOR JOSIAH BEEMAN

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Background
Born and raised in San Francisco, California
Reed College; University of California at Berkeley (Hastings Law)
Early Career	1959-1963
Northern California Council of Churches
Candidate for State Legislature
Democratic Party politics
Political Career	1964
Staff of Congressman Phil Burton
Board of Supervisors, San Francisco
International affairs secretary, Presbyterian church
Southern Africa Task Force
Lyndon Johnson's San Francisco company manager	1984
George McGovern's congressional liaison officer	1972
Staff director for Democratic Caucus	1975
Chief Deputy Director of Finance, California	1976
Director of California's Washington, DC office	1976
Jerry Brown's reelection campaign	1978
Jerry Brown's presidential campaign	1979
Policy and Legislative Director - AFSCME	1980-1983
Manager, Democratic National Convention	1984
Private Business	1984
Clients
Political connections
Lobbyist for State of California
Clinton's California Strategy Advisors	1992
New Zealand - Ambassador	1994-1999
Nomination process
U.S.-New Zealand relations
Operations
Nuclear weapons issue
Government
AUSCANZUKUS organization
Kiwis
New Zealand-Australia relationship
Lamb problem

Trade
Pharmaceuticals
Asians
Ex-Yugoslavia
VIP visitors
Antarctica
President Clinton visit
Pacific Islands
Maoris

Post-Ambassadorship

2000

Chief of Staff, Broadcasting Board of Governors