

JOHN BENNETT AND THOMAS STERN
SOUTH KOREA (1975-1979)

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Background

Assignments and reasons for posting

U.S. policy toward South Korea

USAID in Korea

Security assistance

Threat analysis

Troop withdrawal

Carter's campaign and policies

Reporting to Washington

Major General Singlaub's objections to withdrawal

Possibility of preemptive strike

Israel's closing of embassy in Seoul

Industrialization

Instruction from State Department and role of Human Rights

South Korea vs. North Korea

Knowledge about North Korea

Economics of troop withdrawal

Strategic position of Koreas

Death of U.S. officers in Demilitarized Zone

Tree trimming

Military vs. politics

Carter Administration

Force Improvement Plan

Carter's visit

Embassy Objectives

Ambassador Sneider and Human rights

Human rights and policy toward South Korea

Opening Korean market and institution building

Friction between General Stilwell and Ambassador Sneider

American Community in South Korea

Role of businessmen and missionaries

American press