

JOHN T. BENNETT

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Background
Born in Madison, Wisconsin
Raised in Albany, New York and Washington, DC area
Harvard University; University of California, Berkeley
Entered Foreign Service 1955
INR/NEA	1955-1957
French Language Training, FSI
Tunisia, Tunis	1957-1960
AID, Assistant Program Officer
Algerian War
President Bourguiba
AID Projects
French Presence
Curacao	1960-1963
Petroleum Industry
South Vietnam, Saigon	1963-1965
Economic Officer
Environment, Wartime Atmosphere
Embassy Personnel
AID Mission
Buddhists' Struggle
Conflicting View of Events
Diem and U.S. Commitment
Ambassador Henry C. Lodge
Vietnam Economy
The War Progresses
AID, Vietnam, State Department	1965-1969
Economic Planning
Pacification and Land Reform Initiatives
Agriculture Projects
Saigon Port
The Rand Team
CORDS Program
Tet Offensive

Dominican Republic, Santo Domingo Deputy Director, AID Problems with AID Projects Political and Economic Environment	1969-1972
Stanford University Business School	1972-1973
South Vietnam, Saigon Deputy Director AID AID Levels Congressional Criticism Ambassador Graham Martin Bella Abzug Conflicts on Assessments' of War's Progress Embassy Staff Changes A Losing War Refugees Embassy 'Drawdown' Evacuation Views on Vietnam Tragedy	1973-1975
Guatemala, Guatemala City DCM Tourism Security RCAP Program Embassy Staffing Environment Nicaragua Relations Human Rights Local Economy Chiefs of Mission Conference in Costa Rica	1978-1978
National War College Faculty Member	1979-1981