

PHILIP BIRNBAUM

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Family, Early Years, Education and Military Service
Joined ICA	1959
Assignment as Program Economist to Tunisia	1960
Move to Algeria	1963
Reassignment to Washington: Africa-Europe Bureau	1964
Deputy Director and Director for USAID Morocco	1967-1969
Washington as Deputy Assistant Administrator: Africa Bureau	1969
Assistant Administrator for the Bureau for Program and Policy Coordination	1972
Establishment of International Fund for Agriculture Development (IFAD) Served as Its First Vice President	1978-1983
Return to Washington and the Wheeler Group on Africa	1983
Retired from AID	1985
Worked in the World Bank on the Special Facility for Africa and Special Program of Assistance (SPA)
Reflections on lessons of development and future prospects

KEY WORDS

Adams, Sam
African Development Bank
African Development Fund
Agricultural University Hassan II
Al-Sudeary, Abdelmushin
Algeria
American degrees
basic human needs
Borlag, Norman

Bourguiba, President
CARE
Catholic Relief Society (CRS)
Chad
Consultative Group
debt servicing
Development Loan Fund
Economic Policy Initiative
Ellender, Senator
family planning
food for work program
French
Ghana
Gilligan, John Hannah, Dr. John
high-yielding wheat variety
International Cooperation Administration (ICA)
International Fund for Agricultural Development (IFAD)
Interagency Working Group on the African Economic Crisis
Jaycox, Kim
Kenya
King Hassan
Kissinger, Henry
Korry Report
Lennon, Harry
long-range assistance strategy
Lutherans
Morocco
multipurpose dam
Newsom, David
OPEC
Paris Club
Parker, Dan
Peace Corps
PL480
PPC
preventative health
regional economic development service offices
Rogers, Bill
school of veterinarian medicine
Senegal
Somalia
Soviet influence
Special Facility for Africa
Special Program of Assistance (SPA)
Tanzania

Tasker, Ambassador Henry

Tunisia

U.S. Initiative for Sub-Sahara Africa

Vietnam

vocational education school

Wheeler Group

World Bank

World Food Conference in Rome

World Food Council

Zaire

Zambia