

AMBASSADOR DON CARROLL BLISS, JR

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Far From Foggy Bottom
Reports from the Field That Never Were Filed

Under the Bed in Tokyo

Tokyo, Japan: Commercial Attaché	1923-1924
Arrival in Yokohama Japan September 1, 1923 after earthquake
Destruction to Yokohama and Tokyo
Arrival of Dollar Line's President Harrison
Orders changed from Tokyo to Kobe
Customs procedure
Consulate tent city
Retrieving baggage
American Embassy after quake
Destruction
Living arrangements
Imperial hotel
US Navy relief vessel
Experiences of personnel
Japanese death toll
Getting acquainted
Weekend outings
Finding suitable living quarters
Housing and Japanese customs
Unique plumbing
Servants
Relations with Japanese
Royal family
Continued earthquake shocks
Imperial hotel
Dining during a quake
House in Minamicho

Bachelors in Bombay

Bombay, India: Assistant Trade Officer	1924-1926
Hotel Taj Mahal
Living conditions
Malabar Hill crime scene
Social doings
Fashion

The Denishawn repertoire
Bombay to Delhi via auto
Cecil Hotel
Malaria
Financial reporting
India's gold and silver hoard

Crime and Punishment in Singapore

Singapore: Commercial Attaché	1929-1932
Detective Branch Superintendent Lang
Climate
Crown Colony Singapore
Crime
Government control of opium
Gambling
Gang War murder
Singapore Club
Night life
The case of Mr. and Mrs. Begg
A case of prostitution and racism
Bargain loot on the market

Calcutta to London

London, England: Economic Counselor	1941-1947
The world at war
Travel from Calcutta
Personnel effects
Fellow passenger General Auchinleck
Basra stopover
War in Mesopotamia
Cairo stopover
Wartime Cairo
Khartoum stopover
Stanleyville stopover
Douala stopover
Lagos stopover
"Attached" to Lagos Consulate
Plane booking difficulties
To London on a Flying Boat
Royalty aboard
Gibraltar stop
King Peter unloaded
Arrival Poole, Kent (UK)
Bomb damage en route London

US Embassy, #1 Grosvenor Square

Area bomb damage

Henry Stebbins' narrow escape

London black out

Air raid