

WILLIAM L. BLUE

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Background
Born and raised in Memphis, Tennessee
Southwestern College, Vanderbilt University and Fletcher School
Entered Foreign Service 1941
Niagara Falls, Canada	1941-1942
Consular officer
Ciudad Bolivar, Venezuela	1942-1944
Consular officer
Information gathering
Naples, Italy	1944-1948
Wartime Naples
Consular work (citizenship)
Cooperation with U.S. military
Famous personalities
Naples at war's end
Political orientation
Kuala Lumpur, Malaya	1948-1949
Consul
Communist guerrillas
British in charge
U.S. policies
Personnel	1949-1952
McCarthy period
New Delhi, India	1952-1955
Political officer
Nehru and anti-U.S. attitude
Ambassadors Bowles, Allen and cooper
Working with the Indian government
Goa problem
Kashmir
Paris, France	1955-1956
NATO Defense College
Bern, Switzerland	1956-1958

	Deputy Chief of Mission Ambassador Frances Willis CIA Ambassador Henry J. Taylor
EUR	Executive Director Problems and issues President and Kennedy Western European Affairs (Belgium and Congo)	1958-1962
Lisbon, Portugal	Deputy Chief of Mission Ambassador George Anderson U.S. relations and African problems Salazar Medical problem	1962-1965
Inspection Corps	Bicentennial organization	1965