

J. RICHARD BOCK

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Background
Born in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania; raised in Shelton, Washington
University of Washington; Princeton University
Entered Foreign Service - 1965
Bremen, Germany - Vice Consul	1966-1968
Case studies
Vietnam
State Department - Vietnam Training Center	1968-1969
Vietnamese language training
Bien Hoa, Vietnam - Refugee Officer	1969-1970
Operations
U.S. military
Reporting
Cambodian invasion
Saigon, Vietnam - Special Assistant to Ambassador Bunker	1970-1971
Laos invasion (Lan Som)
“Irregular Practices”
Paris negotiations
State Department - EUR - French Desk Officer	1971-1973
France-U.S. relations
Africa
Vietnam
Bien Hoa, Vietnam - TDY	1973
International Central Commission
Cease-fire
State Department - FSI - Chinese Language Training	1973-1974
Taichung, Taiwan - Chinese Language Training	1974-1975
Hong Kong - Political Officer	1975-1976
China developments
Operations
British

Beijing, China - Political Officer	1976-1979
Environment
Earthquake
Political climate
Gang of Four
Mao's death
Travel restrictions
Indochina wars
Academics (Chinese)
Normalization of relations
Berlin, Germany - Senat Liaison Officer	1979-1983
Operations
Relations
East Germans
Leftists
Ballistic missiles
Berlin-West German relationship
President Reagan visit
U.S. military
Berlin Wall
National War College	1983-1984
State Department - Congressional Relations - Legislative Liaison Office - East Asia Legislative Management Officer	1984-1986
Solarz Committee
MIAs
Pacific Isles states
Taipei, Taiwan - American Institute in Taiwan - General Affairs – Chief	1986-1989
Taiwan-China relations
China trends
Political situation
Arms
Economic situation
Congressional interest
Tiananmen Square
Melbourne, Australia - Consul General	1989-1992
U.S. naval visits
Relations
Issues
Tasmania

Industrial College of the Armed Forces Political Science Department	1992-1993
Washington, DC - Deputy Managing Director of American Institute in Taiwan U.S.-Taiwan relationship Relations with State Department China relations Cornell University	1993-1996
Retirement	1996