

AMBASSADOR RICHARD W. BOEHM

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Background
Born in Queen, New York, 1926
Jamaica High School
Army armored division, Germany	1945-1946
Adelphi College, graduated 1950, England
France	1948-1949
Merits of G.I. Bill
Prentice Hall Publishing Company
Mutual Insurance Company
Foreign Service Examination process
Appointed to the Foreign Service, December 1954
Motivations to enter the Foreign Service
New Division	1955-1956
Henry Suydam, head
Role of Division
News-tickers service
Liaison with the bureau of Near Eastern Affairs
“sort of assistant spokesman”
Department of State’s relationship with the press
Cold war issues
Foreign Service Institute	1956
A –100 course
Consular course, Schott McLeod & Frank Auerbach
Naha, Okinawa	1956-1958
Junior vice-consul
Organization, people in the consular unit
Living in Okinawa
Report on “Revisionist sentiment among the Okinawans”
Reaction of American military command to report
Hamburg, West Germany	1959
Assistant General Service Officer
German language school, Frankfurt
West Berlin, West Germany	1959-1962
Economic Section, 1959-1960
Driving on the autobahn to West Berlin
Khrushchev’s ultimatum

Economy, population, government of West Berlin
Prohibited manufacture and sales of goods for military use
Question of dual use items, French position
Access to East Berlin
No contact with East German authorities
U.S. policy on East Germany
Economic developments in East Germany, “Inter-Zonal Trade”
Disparity between East and West German economic situations
Possibility of Soviet attack on West Berlin, fear of nuclear war
Disparity of Soviet attack on West Berlin, fear of nuclear war
Concerns about change in U.S. Presidential Administrations
Eleanor Dulles
Staff aide to Allan Lightner, 1960-1961
Access officer, Political Section 1961-1962
Access on the Autobahn
Question of Allied flights in the air corridors
President Kennedy’s speech, summer 1961, commitment to W. Berlin
President Kennedy’s appearance with Khrushchev at Vienna
East Germans’ leaving East Berlin for the West
Building of the wall & American and West Berliner’s reaction
Autobahn crisis
General Lucius Clay
Tank confrontation at Checkpoint Charlie
Air corridor crises
Impression of Willi Brandt
Working relationship between the allies in Berlin
U.S. communication between Berlin, Bonn, and Washington
General Clay and the road to Steinstuecken
Family life in Berlin, children in German schools

Bureau of Intelligence and Analysis 1962-1965
Western Europe [REU], Berlin and NATO affairs
Skybolt Crisis and meeting between Macmillan and Kennedy
French reaction to the U.S. sale of Polaris missiles to the British
Role of INR
Information gathering at INR
INR’s conclusion regarding France and NATO
De Gaulle’s demand for General Danalli’s ouster from NATO Defense College
NATO Defense College
Effects of France’s withdrawal from NATO’s military structure
Assessment of Soviet threat
CIA and DIA reports

Bureau of European Affairs 1965-1966
Officer in Charge of NATO Political Affairs
Office of regional Political Military Affairs

Idea of a multilateral Force [MLF] Mr. Boehm's report in opposition to the idea while at INR North Atlantic Council's move out of Paris to Brussels Importance of Germany to NATO Idea of German reunification German efforts to reconcile with the French Berlin as Soviet's "undigested lump in the middle of East Germany"
Luxembourg DCM Ambassador Patricia Roberts Harris Political vs. career ambassadors Importance of gaining confidence of political ambassadors as DCM Pro-American feeling in Luxembourg Luxembourg's position on the French withdrawal from NATO Luxembourg's relationship with Germans and Belgians Anti-American demonstrations against the Vietnam War	1966-1968
National War College Obsession with Vietnam among classmates at War College	1968-1969
Bureau of Economic Affairs Public affairs officer Textiles from East Asia European orientation of Mr. Boehm's career	1969-1971
Ankara, Turkey Political-Military Counselor Ambassador Bill Handley Situation in Turkey High competence of officials in Turkish Foreign Ministry Renegotiation of the Defense and Economic Cooperation Agreement Turkish concern over sovereignty "Polish-Military most favored nation position" regarding concessions Turkish views on the Soviets and NATO Greek views on the Turks Soviet desire to dominate the Turkish straits and Turkish cancers Turkish views on US Arms sales to Iran, Israel, Egypt Kurdish situation Armenian question and effect on U.S.-turkey relations Demand of Armenian-American lobby Turkish position on the deaths of Armenian in 1915 Armenian efforts to get a section at the U.S. holocaust Museum Cyprus Crisis Greek policy of enosis, annexation of Cyprus by Greece U.S. views on the crisis	1971-1974

Turkish invasion of Cyprus & their legal “right to do so” Greek lobby Gerald Smith and Multilateral Force
Bangkok, Thailand	1974-1976
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Political –military officer Political-military situation in Thailand Evacuation of Americans and U.S. Embassy, Phnom Penh and Saigon Personal Contacts with Thai Military, General Kriangsak Chomanan Role of the Thai royal family Corruption in the Thai military Thai policy of “bending with the wind” and flexible borders Removal of U.S. bases from Thailand Possible communist threats to Thailand Ambassador William Kintner Mr. Boehm’s expectation of becoming DCM Ambassador Charles Whitehouse Mr. Boehm’s views on appropriate posture of the military Bangkok as center for sex Efforts to educate U.S. ten-age kids about drugs Views f Thailand as a falling domino Thai way of dealing with outside threats Inability of Cambodia, Laos Vietnam to pose a threat
Hamilton College	1976-1977
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Diplomat-in-residence
Inspector general of Assistance
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Role and abolition of office Inspection of U.S. Embassy, Manila
Kathmandu, Nepal	1978-1980
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> DCM Political situation U.S. interest Ambassador Doug Heck and Ernie Heck U.S. embassy and Nepalese government Human rights Economic conditions in Nepal U.S. AID Swiss projects Gurkhas India and Nepal China and Nepal Political appointee as a new Ambassador to Nepal

Ankara, Turkey	1980-1983
DCM
Political situation
Cyprus situation
Aegean Sea Issue
U.S. military assistance to turkey and Greece
Soviet Black Sea Fleet
Effect of withholding of military ad on Turkish military readiness
Soviet threat and Turkish main motive in joining NATO
Turkey and Iran-Iraq War
Alleged human rights abuses in turkey
Human rights and Kurdish issue
Poppy cultivation and opium
“Midnight express” case
Prisoner exchange treaties
Ambassador Robert Strausz-Hupe
U.S. Delegation, 39 th UN general Assembly	1983
Adviser for Bureau of European Affairs
Ambassador Jeane Kirkpatrick
U.S. position on cutting waste in UN budget
Board of Examiners	1984
Changes in the selection procedure
Personal impression of candidates examined
Sacrificing meritocracy to have Foreign Service “look like America”
Lack of general knowledge on part of examinees
“Near passes” and minorities
Cyprus	1984-1987
Ambassador
How chosen, nomination and confirmation process
U.S. Senator Sarbanes
Bill Schaufele
U.S. interest and concerns in Cyprus
UN involvement in Cyprus
U.S. support for UN Secretary-general’s efforts
U.S. Embassy, Nicosia
Ambassador’s beach house in Kyrenia
DCM Tom Carolan
Political situation
Ingredient and obstacles to settling the Cyprus problem
Turkish and Greek views
His Excellency Mr. Denktash
Confidence-building measures
U.S. assistance program in Cyprus

Cooperation between Greeks and Turks for sewer system in Nicosia
U.S. Leverage applied to Turkish Cypriots
Concern of older Turkish Cypriots
Turkish Cypriot economy
Turkish settlers in Cyprus
Greek property in Turkish Cyprus
Case of Andrew Kasapis
Andreas Papandreou
Mainland Greek involvement in Cyprus
Greek Ambassador in Nicosia
British sovereign Base Areas
Cypriot government in Cyprus
Security for U.S. Ambassador
Relationship between U.S. Mission Cyprus and Lebanon
Issue concerning U.S. Embassy and EUCOM
Importance of Embassy control of operations in foreign country
Howard University	1987-1988
Diplomat-in-residence
Efforts to recruit American-Americans into Foreign Service
Level of interest in foreign affairs at Howard
Oman	1989-1992
Ambassador
Nomination and confirmation process
Situation in Oman
U.S.-Oman military access agreement
Oman-Yemeni border
Government of Oman
Conduction business in Oman
U.S. Senator D'Amato
Military construction projects in Oman
The Said family
History of Oman, Muscat, and Zanzibar
Sultan Qaboos's upbringing in England and hopes to modernize
U.S. Human rights report
Popular participation in government and Council of State
Meeting with the Sultan
Life of women Iraqi invasion of Kuwait
Omani-Kuwait relations
Desert Shield and Storm and Omani cooperation
General Schwarzkopf and effect of victory on U.S. prestige
Omani reluctance to severely punish Iraq
Gulf Cooperation Council (GCC)
U.S. and Omani relations with Iraq and Iran
Shia community in Oman

Saudi Arabia, border issue
Future of Oman

Retired form Foreign Service

1992