

ARCHIE M. BOLSTER

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Background
Schooling in Netherlands
University of Virginia
U.S. Navy
Entry into Foreign Service 1959
Cambodia	1959-1960
Disbursing officer
Political work
Impressions of Prince Sihanouk
Persian Language Training	1960-1961
Tabriz, Iran	1961-1963
Vice consul
White Revolution
The mullahs
Tehran, Iran	1963-1966
Consular officer
Student visa matters
Political officer
Contacts with opposition
Impression of Shah
AID
CIA
INR (Iran)	1966-1968
Iranian political dynamics
Noting Shah's weaknesses
Shah not liked by embassy
Economic Bureau	1969-1971
Trade and Energy
U.S. restrictions on Canadian oil imports
Oil industry under pressure from foreign sources
Wisconsin University	1971-1972
Study on land tenure
Vietnam and student activists

New Delhi, India	1972-1974
Assistant to ambassador
Political officer
Indian-Soviet relations
Closing U.S. Aid program
Ambassador Moynihan
Friction over U.S. –Pakistan relations
Tehran, Iran	1974-1976
Deputy chief political section
Grandiose projects from oil wealth
Impressions of Shah
Huge military buildup
Problems with Washington
Training-poor impression created by some U.S. institutions
Mullahs and their influence
Lack of embassy attention to mullahs
Khomeini sermons on take
Problems over status of forces arrangements
Commerce Department
Energy and oil issues
Antwerp, Belgium	1978-1981
Consul General
Flemish-Walloon differences
Theater nuclear force issues
Security Assistance	1981-1983
Budgeting
Economic Bureau	1983
Aviation rights	