

DR. ROBERT R. BOWIE

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Early Career

Law background and Army
Germany

Head of Policy Planning Staff, State Department 1953- 1957

Recruitment
Transition and Staff
Role and duties of Policy Planning Staff
US relations with the world and the importance of the NSC
Cooperation under the Eisenhower administration
President Eisenhower and Secretary of State Dulles

US View of Soviet Union: Solarium Exercise

Analysis of Soviet policy
Khrushchev's leadership
Hungarian Revolution of 1956
Containment of Eastern Europe

US-Arab Relations and the Aswan Dam

US policy towards Israel
Suez War of 1956
Soviet reaction to Suez War

The French and Indochina

US reaction to expansion of communism in Indochina
Relations with England
Nuclear alternative
Communist China v. Nationalist China
Eisenhower administration v. Congress
Walter Robertson, Assistant Secretary for Far Eastern Affairs

Conclusion

Return to Harvard: Center for International Affairs
Impression of Foreign Service