

BONNIE BROWN

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Background

Born in Canada, raised in Seattle, Washington
Whitman College; University of California, Berkeley (Law)
Federal Communications Commission

Brazzaville, Congo: Wife of the US Ambassador 1982-1984

Johannesburg, South Africa: Wife of the US Consul General and Educational Advisor for USIA 1984-1987

Sullivan Principles
Kodak
Misgivings
Living environment
Pass raids
Racial environment
White community
Family
Adoption
Soweto Parents Crisis Committee
Luncheon project
Ambassador Herman Nickel
Ambassador Ed Perkins
Pretoria culture
Female restrictions
Coretta Scott King visit
Security
Contact risks
“Children under Apartheid”
Children detention
“The Black Sash”
Project grants
Forced removals
“Necklacing”
Birth control
Churches
Bishop Tutu
Non-Government Organizations (NGOs)
Assistance Programs
Congressional visits
USAID
Black Consciousness Movement

Women's march to Pretoria
Nelson Mandela
Truth and Reconciliation Commission
Consulate General/Embassy differences
Soweto
Basic Education
Ted Kennedy visit
Homelands
Area travel
Surveillance
Personal contacts
Visitors