

DR. ZBIGNIEW BRZEZINSKI

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Association with Lyndon Johnson

- Few early contacts
- Worked for Kennedy-Johnson ticket
- Johnson a “good listener”
- Johnson not well versed in Soviet Affairs

State Department - Policy Planning Council - Kennedy-Johnson Administration

- Council downgraded in favor of NSC
- Council denied access to some sensitive issues
- Soviet duplicity in Vietnam war
- Soviets and Sino-Soviet conflict
- Brzezinski as an “outsider” in government
- Brzezinski’s direct access to President

Contacts with NSC and President Johnson

- Use of White House staff to reach President
- Bypassing NSC
- Author of Johnson’s East-West relations speech
- Bobby Kennedy’s proposed policy speech
- Johnson’s views on East-West reconciliation
- Trade Bill
- State Department reaction to Johnson’s speech
- “Harmel Exercise”
- Fall of Erhard
- Israeli-Arab reconciliation issue
- Mac Bundy mission
- Vietnamese issue influence
- East-West initiative idea
- President’s contacts with intellectuals (Harvard)
- “Intellectuals” and Vietnam issue
- Leaving NSC

Working with Hubert Humphrey - 1968

- Foreign Policy Task Force
- Vietnam
- Humphrey-Johnson differences

President Johnson’s preferences

- Abe Fortas and Clark Clifford on foreign affairs
- Dobrynin effective in “taking in” people