

AMBASSADOR ELLSWORTH BUNKER

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Appointment as ambassador to Vietnam

- Shortly after marriage
- Johnson provides plane for couple to meet monthly
- Handling of Dominican crisis
- Johnson emphasizes training Vietnamese military
- No gap between arrival and Lodge departure

Relations with U.S. military

- Ambassador definitely in charge
- Guam conference
- Vietnamese leaders
- Thieu reserved and profound
- Thieu-Ky rivalry
- Westmoreland heads Pacification Program

Arrival in Saigon

- Embassy under construction
- Excellent personnel
- Bob Komer
- DCMs
- Saigon atmosphere

Vietnamese political situation - elections

- Pre-election rivalry
- Ambassador preferred Thieu as president
- Police Chief Loan
- Ambassador's advice to candidates
- Vietnam military preferences
- Lack of civilian candidates
- Election conduct
- Freedom of press
- Ambassador's role in elections
- President Johnson's reaction to election outcome
- Religious rivalry
- Buddhists

Thieu-Ky rivalry

- Thieu's personality

Vietnam-U.S. issues

- Corruption

- Pay scales
- Land reform
- Province Chief's authority
- POWs - "Tiger cages"

Cambodia sanctuary issue

- Laos - 1962 treaty obstacle
- China equation
- Prince Sihanouk's position
- Mekong shipping

Pre-Tet peace proposals

- Johnson September 1967 proposal
- Thieu's letter to Ho Chi Minh
- "Buttercup" Affair
- Thieu and party negotiations or proposals

Pacification Program

- Hamlet security
- Economic aspect
- CORDS (description)
- Edward Lansdale
- Phoenix Program
- Unearthing the underground
- Relation to Chieu Hoi program
- William Corson - "The Betrayal"
- Evaluation of program
- Lessons learned
- Local apathy

U.S. intelligence gathering

- CIA chiefs (evaluation)
- Military intelligence (evaluation)

Congressional visits

1967-1968

Close calls

- Helicopter forced landing
- "Under fire"

Visitors

- George Romney
- Hubert Humphrey
- Maxwell Taylor-Clark Clifford mission - July 1967
- Governor Ronald Reagan
- Edward Kennedy

Others
Refugees