

RICHARD P. BUTRICK

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Background

Born in 1894, raised in New York state
U.S. Bureau of Fisheries
Georgetown University
Father Walsh
Entered Consular Service

Valparaiso, Chile 1921-1922
Consular officer

Guayaquil, Ecuador 1923-1926
Consul and acting consul general
Yellow fever eradication
Cacao market
Coup d'etat
Local problems and environment

St. Johns, New Brunswick, Canada 1932
Consul

Hankow, China 1926-1932
Consular officer
Getting there
Communist takeover during Long March
End of Foreign concessions
Dealing with Chinese communists
Yangtze River patrol
Japanese

Shanghai, China 1932-1940
Consular officer
International settlement
U.S. interests

Chungking, China 1941
Counselor embassy

Peking, China 1941-1942
Officer in charge
Surrender to Japanese
Treatment by Japanese

Evacuation
Inspection Corps	1942
Santiago, Chile	1942-1944
Economic counselor
Wartime relations
Inspection Corps	1944-1946
Foreign Service administration
Manila, Philippines	1946-1947
Advisor to president of Philippines
Reykjavík, Iceland	1948-1949
U.S. minister
U.S. airfield at Keflavik
Iceland joins NATO
Director General of Foreign Service	1949-1952
Montreal, Canada	1952-1955
Consul general
Sao Paulo, Brazil	1955-1959
Consul general	