

SAMUEL H. BUTTERFIELD

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Family background and early education
Period of military service
College and graduate education
Work with the international division of the Bureau of the Budget	1953-1958
Joined ICA as a desk officer for Berlin	1958
Served as ICA desk officer for Libya - Europe and Africa Bureau	1959-1960
Observations on decolonization in Africa
The Kennedy Administration and the beginning of USAID	1960-1961
Observations on the motivations for foreign assistance Participation in the orientation program for Operation Tycoon appointees
Assignment as Deputy Director and later Mission Director in USAID/Tanzania	1962
A brief assignment in Sudan	1964-1965
Attended the State Department's Senior Seminar	1968
A senior position in USAID Technical Assistance Bureau	1969
"New Directions" Legislation
Assignment to USAID/Nepal as Mission Director	1976
Observations on a career in US foreign assistance programs
Annexes
1. "Rural Development: Why It is Hard for Developing Country Leadership to Get Started." Samuel H. Butterfield. 1977.
2. "How Foreign Aid Works." Samuel H. Butterfield. 1982.
3. "History of US Development Assistance - Introduction." Excerpt from the introduction. A book in preparation by Samuel H. Butterfield. 1988.

KEY WORDS

agricultural education
agricultural production
Alliance for Progress
Bedouin
Berlin
Bureau of the Budget
capital assistance
communication
community development
decolonization
democratic institutions
Development Loan Fund
disengagement (terminal development loan concept)
East Africa
education
Ethiopia
India Club
India
International Cooperation Administration
Kenya
Libya
mapping
Nile River
oil
Point 4
President Kennedy
Richards' Mission
Robert Berenson
Somalia
Sudan
Tanganyika
technical assistance
transportation
US strategic interests
US national security
Uganda
University of East Africa
water conservation'
Zaire