

AMBASSADOR HENRY BYROADE

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Background
Indiana
West Point graduate 1937
Cornell University
World War II, India and China	1941-1944
Bomb Tokyo mission
Flying the “hump”
Generals Wedemeyer and Arnold
Lado road
Assam
Flying Tigers, 14 th Air Force
China
Gennault
Building airfields in China
General Silwell
Chengtu, China
General Curtis Lemay
B-29 raid on Tokyo
Chiang Kai Shek
World War II (Pentagon)	1944-1945
General staff
Marshall’s China Mission	1945-1947
Chou En Lai
Mao Tse Tung
Truce agreement
Communist-Nationalist working arrangements
Chiang Kai Shek’s view of China
“China Hands”
John Davies
Failure of Marshal Mission
China-Soviet relations
Pentagon and State Department	1947-1952
Chief General Staff, International Affairs
Berlin Airlift
General Bradley
Charles (Chip) Bohlen
Working with State Department

Lucius Clay
Secretary of State George Marshall
On loan to State Department
Meeting with Molotov in London with Marshall
Assistant Secretary of State

Post-war Germany 1947-1952

Dismantling Germany
Agreement on Austria
President Truman's grasp of foreign affairs
Forming West Germany's constitution
Conrad Adenauer
British attitude towards Germany
German rearmament questions
French attitudes
Pentagon and State differences o German rearmament
Douglas Macarthur II
Dwight D. Eisenhower
Older-Nisse border controversy
Kurt Schumacher
Pleven Plan
Perry Lauthuff
German unification controversy
West Germany's integration with West
First U.S. ambassador to West Germany

NEA 1952-1955

Assistant Secretary
Special Ambassador to Near East Edwin Locke
Edwin Wright
Zionists antagonized by speech
President Truman and Zionists
Loy Henderson
John Foster Dulles
Aswan Dam decision
Suez crisis
Iran oil crisis (Mossadegh)
The Shah

Cairo, Egypt 1955-1956

Ambassador
Nasser's Egypt
Baghdad Pact upsets Nasser
Ben Gurion
Suez War

Pretoria, South Africa Ambassador Apartheid U.S. influence Sanctions	1956-1959
Kabul, Afghanistan Ambassador Life in Kabul Russian influence Prime Minister Daud Pushtunistan issue	1959-1960
Arms Control Advisor	1962-1963
Rangoon, Burma Ambassador Life in Burma Aid programs Peace Corps U.S. –Burma relations Prime Minister Ne Win Relations with China	1963-1969
Manila, Philippines Ambassador The Marcoses Local conditions American bases Benigno Aquino	1969-1971
Islamabad, Pakistan Ambassador U.S. arms embargo Bhutto	1973-1977