

GILBERT R. CALLAWAY

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Background

Born and raised in Tennessee, Mississippi, and Arkansas
Rice University; American University; National University of Mexico
Racial and ethnic environment
U.S. Army
Entered Foreign Service - 1966

State Department - Intelligence and Research (INR) -
Contract Employee - Latin America 1965-1966
Marxism
Democratic movement
Mexico

Caracas, Venezuela - USIA 1966-1969
Transitional elections
Pro-Castro parties
Oil prosperity
Ambassador Maurice Bernbaum
Student attitudes - U.S.
Nationalizations
Universities

Washington, DC - Foreign Service Institute - Language Training 1969

Zagreb, Yugoslavia - USIS 1970-1972
Environment
Tito
Nixon visit
Political reporting
Croats
National unity question
USIA programs
Zagreb commercial fair
Emigrés to U.S.
Vietnam issue
Albania
Yugoslavia's external relations

State Department - USIA - Yugoslavia, Albania, and Bulgaria 1972-1974
Programs
China

<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Soviet Union Cultural facilities Khrushchev-Nixon kitchen debate Spy mentality Public attitudes Cold War mentality Travel in area Area cultural centers (U.S.) Vietnam Embassy-consulate relationship VOA in Bulgaria
Washington, DC - Foreign Service Institute – Russian Language Training	1974-1975
Moscow, USSR - Press and Information Officer <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Kissinger Moscow visit Press contacts Bob Toth arrested (“L.A. Times”) Soviet press VOA reception Harassment Astronauts Environment Travel restrictions Human rights Ambassador Walter Stoessel Ambassador Mac Toon Embassy microwave issue Cyrus Vance visit Carter’s openness policy 	1975-1977
Bologna, Italy - Johns Hopkins School of Advanced International Studies (SAIS) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Communist Party studies U.S.-Soviet relations Observations on study course Environment Bureaucracy Italian communists 	1977-1978
Rome, Italy - Press/Information Attaché <ul style="list-style-type: none"> U.S. media representatives Television Local press Missiles 	1978-1982

RAI-1 team
Ambassador Richard Gardner
General Dozier kidnapping
Ambassador Maxwell Rabb
Brigadi Rosi
U.S. troop presence
Presidential visits
Earthquake

Managua, Nicaragua

1982-1984

Political environment
U.S. policy
Earthquake
Somoza
Sandinistas
Ambassador Tony Quainton
Contacts
President Borge
Ortegas
U.S. press
Local press
U.S. visitors
Foreign Service locals
Carlos Tunnerman
Contras
Ollie North and National Security Council (NSC)
Congressional visits
Kissinger Commission on Central America
Catholic Church
Cuban influence
Grenada invasion
Anti-U.S. demonstrations
Communism
Public pro-U.S. sentiments
Programs
Travel restrictions
El Salvador
Charlie Wick
Embassy staff
Area embassy coordination
VOA

State Department - Latin America Bureau (ARA)

1984-1985

Press guidance
Press corps

USIA - Research Public policy polling	1985-1988
Rome, Italy - Cultural Attaché Fulbright exchange program Communist Party Ambassador and Mrs. Peter Secchia U.S.-Italy relations Political climate Mafia Corruption U.S. cultural influence	1988-1992
USIA - Executive Assistant to Deputy Director Eugene Kopp VOA and USIA connections Radio Free Europe Radio Liberty Television Marti Worldnet CNN John Condayan Clinton administration changes Personnel Budget cuts USIA goes to State Jesse Helms USIA-State relationship	1992-1995
Madrid, Spain - Cultural Attaché	1995-1996
Retirement Federal Emergency Management Agency	1996