

AMBASSADOR WALTER CARRINGTON

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Background
Early career in Africa
Senegal 1952
Peace Corps, Sierra Leone	1961-1963
Political situation
Peace Corps v. AID
Effectiveness of Peace Corps
Tunisia	1963-1965
Senegal	1965-1967
President Leopold Senghor and creation of political parties
Role of Peace Corps in Senegal
Peace Corps' relations with embassy
Director for African Operations
Ambassador, Senegal	1980-1981
Appointment
Instructions from Washington
Embassy staff
Libya v. Chad
Recognition of PLO and attitude toward Israel
Role of France in Senegal
Stepping down of President Senghor
US elections in 1980
Effect of Reagan administration on relations with Senegal
Conclusion
Efforts to stop coup in Gambia
Foreign Service as a Career	