

TERRENCE CATHERMAN

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Education, Army Service, Initial Entry into Department of State: 1949

1950: Shift from Department of State Internship to Kreis Resident Officer Program in HICOG

Catherman's Philosophic Evaluation of American Accomplishments in Germany in Early Post-War Era

1952: Catherman Leaves Kreis Resident Officer Ranks to Become Amerika Haus Director in Heidelberg; Then to Bonn

Post OMGUS Information Program under HICOG Began as Department of State Controlled Operation, but Transferred to Newly Created US Information Agency in August, 1953

Catherman Qualifies his Evaluation of American Success in Democratizing German Society

German Universities Resisted American Style Educational Democratization

1955: After HICOG Germany, a Year of Academic Study at Columbia University

1956: Catherman Starts Four Year Special Assignment in Vienna Monitoring East European and Soviet Media Output

1959: Interlude – Catherman Goes to First Major USIA Exhibit in USSR for Three Months as Member of Exhibit Staff

Returns to Vienna, then Back to USSR for Summer of 1960

May, 1961: Kennedy-Khrushchev Meeting in Vienna Followed Immediately by Transfer to Moscow

1964: Assignment to Washington as Head of Russian and East European Language Broadcasting at VOA

Jamming of VOA had Stopped; Catherman Changed Personnel and Program Character

1967: National War College

1968: PAO in Tel Aviv

1970: Deputy PAO, Germany (as Director West Berlin)

Virulent Anti-Americanism Especially from Students in This Era

May, 1974: Country Public Affairs Officer, Yugoslavia

Will Yugoslavia Fly Apart?

1981: Washington; Area Director for Europe

1983: Poland Begins Jamming VOA Again; Catherman Transfers to VOA as Deputy Director

Right Wing Ideologues Brought into Voice Cause Dissension

1985: Return to Germany as PAO/ Director of USIS

The Interest in and Devotion to USA-German Relations has Waned among USIA Officers Today

Catherman's Expectations re German Attitudes toward US as Result of German Unification

1983-1985: USIS Director (PAO) in France; Catherman Finds the French Unexpectedly Pro-American

The need for Excellent Public Diplomacy Programs in Europe

Final Observations about Role and Value of Public Diplomacy and of USIA as an Entity