

AMBASSADOR HENRY E. CATTO, JR.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Background
Williams College
Backing Republican Party
Deputy Representative to Organization of American States	1969-1971
Background in Latin American Affairs
Duties in OAS
U.S. interests in Latin America
President Johnson in San Salvador
Taking orders from American Republics Bureau (ARA)
Ambassador to El Salvador	1971-1973
Appointment
Instructions from State Department ("This Worked for Me")
Soccer War between Honduras and El Salvador
Political situation and military power
Embassy staff
U.S. policy in El Salvador
Education in El Salvador
Military aid to El Salvador
Visit from Governor Waller of Mississippi
Relations with State Department and ARA
CIA and U.S. military in El Salvador
Guerilla activities
Presidential election in El Salvador: rigged voting and reaction
Chief of Protocol	1974-1976
Duties as Chief of Protocol
Emperor of Japan's visit
Travel with President Nixon
Permanent Representative to United Nations in Europe	1976-1977
Responsibilities
Conclusion
Greatest accomplishments
Frustration
Strengths and weaknesses of Foreign Service	