

AMBASSADOR FREDRIC L. CHAPIN

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Introduction – Early career	1950-1959
Political/ Labor Officer Nicaragua	1959-1961
Labor Unions
Robert Gonzalez
Somoza and labor unions
Coups attempts against Somoza
United Nations affairs	1963
Decolonization
Puerto Rico
Special Assistant to Averell Harriman	1963-1965
New York politics
Arab-Israeli affairs in Washington
South African policy
Executive Secretary, AID	1965-1969
Personnel reductions in Central America
Office of Bolivia/ Chile	1968-1970
Nixon administration and Frei government
Nationalization of Gulf Oil in Bolivia
Deputy Assistant Secretary, Management, ARA	1970-1972
Consular staffing in Caribbean
Consul General, Sao Paulo	1972-1977
Importance of Sao Paulo
American Chamber of Commerce
Visit of Gov. Jimmie Carter
Brazil as market
Consular activities
Relations with embassy
Ambassador to Ethiopia	1977-1980
Appointment process
[See 1988 interview for this period]
Deputy Assistant Secretary Defense	1980
Latin American policy differences between State and Defense

Military Schools and Panama Canal treaties

Deputy Ambassador to El Salvador	1981
Review of military and economic assistance
Murder of American church women
Murder of American land reform experts
Land reform and United States
Ambassador to Guatemala	1981-1984
Limited US aid to Guatemala
Threats against Americans
Murder of AID employees
1983 coup
Inspection Corps	1984-1988
Peculation
Problems of closing consular posts
Consular problems
Cone system
Selection of new officers
Performance pay
Moral fiber
Family and Foreign Service	