

ROBERT L. CHATTEN

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Bio-Sketch

Lure of the Foreign Service
JOT Process

Manila – First Post

Great Training Environment – Huks
Many Ethnic Groups
Colonial Mentality
Policy Issues
Eisenhower Visit
Large Country and Regional Operation
Media Guarantee Program and Assessment
CIA Using USIS Cover
Importance of Credibility
Where USIA Fits in

Off to Japan – Assistant Press and Publications officer

George Hellyer – Thinkers and Doers
Language Training – Alan Carter Never Spoke a Foreign Language
Policies, MacArthur and Reischauer
Program Highlights
Berlin Wall Pamphlet
Reliable Ally?
Next – Latin America?
Comfortable with USIA

On to Lima – Student Affairs Officer

Books – the Entry
Seminars – Alliance for progress
Dangerous Situations
Academic Changes – Credit Hours

Bolivia – Information Office at Large Post

Drugs not a Major Factor
Radio – Media Seminars
Che Guevara – the Search
Miners – Two USIS Officers
Crash of U-2

Washington, DC, Voice of America and Chief, Field Services Branch, Latin America

UCLA – New Impressions

Ecuador – PAO
Oil and Tuna
Bi-national Centers

Surprise Assignments to Colombia
Early Drug Programming
Lesser Support to Bi-national Centers
Media Seminars
Area Director
John Reinhardt and Charlie Bray Off Course
Cataclysmic PAO Conference
CU Merges with USIA
Refugees, Drugs, and Downstream Vietnam
Cutting Resources
Chief of Foreign Service Personnel

Aiming for Mexico – Senior Seminar

PAO Mexico
Ambassador Jack Gavin – Good and Bad Marks
US-Mexican Trade
Suspensions of US Motives
Poor Health Conditions

Again to VOA – Deputy Director
External and In-house Political Intrigues
Conclusions about USIA, Public Diplomacy, Service

Most Important Support – Family