

DALE D. CLARK

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Background
Born and raised in Utah
University of Utah, Columbia and Harvard Universities
Mormon Missionary in Germany (1931-1934)
Department of Agriculture	1935
Tenant Farmers Program
Western States
Contribution of small Church groups
M.L. Wilson
U.S. Navy: London, England	1941-1945
Preparations for invasion of France
Military government
Joint operations with political officers
Planning and coordination in Germany
Morgenthau Plan
Herbert Hoover
“Conflicts in Planning at Supreme Headquarters”
Harvard University: Faculty Member	1945-
Berlin, Germany: Civil Affairs Division, Military Government (OMGUS)
General Lucius Clay
“Fighting Group Against Humanity”
Ed Litchfield
“Museum at Checkpoint Charlie”
Bremen, Germany: Civil Affairs Division
Operations
Berlin, Germany: Civil Affairs Division, (OMGUS)	1949
Georg Dertinger, dinner guest
Lifting Berlin blockade
Berlin airlift
Lavrentiy Beria
Transition to civilian government
Germany; Itinerate Professor, University of Maryland	1949
South Ruislip, Germany: Professor	1950

Prospective students gone to Korea

Washington, DC: Point IV Program: Foreign Agriculture Service

c1951

Chief, Iran Office

Education for the world

Stanley Andrews overseas trip

Program formulation

Musa Bey Alami Project in Jordan

Iran Point IV program

Cold War

Recruitment

Brigham Young University contract

Iran Universities

Ardeshir Zahedi

President Khomeini

Iran Friendship group

Creation of Non-profit Volunteer Organization

Participants

International Voluntary Services (IVS)

Musa Alami Project

World Neighbors-IVS project

Mennonites

Muslim banking

Peace Corps

International Development Advisory Board (IDAB)

National Council of Churches

Eric Johnston

Advisory Board

Guatemala self-financing project

Bishop O'Rourke and Philippine project

People-to-People approach

Indian Program

Change to "high-spending" approach

Stanley Andrews

Positions in Point IV Program

Chief, Education Program

Assistance to foreign colleges

Criteria for aid

Iran program

Stanley Andrews, Administrator

Acting Head of Point IV

Visit to overseas programs

Peace Corps as model

Comments on building an organization

- Assembly of parts
- Religious organizations
- New Deal revolution
- Non-profit organizations
- International Voluntary Services
- “Testing the People to People Approach”
- Board of Governors
- Youth vs. age

Later non-Government service

1954-1964

- Musa Bey Alami School, Jericho, Jordan
- International development Advisory Board Staff
- Point IV program
- Small farmer programs

Washington, DC; Bureau of Indian Affairs

1964-

- Self-help financing for Tribes
- Senate Banking Committee

Final comments

- Iran then and now
- President Khomeini
- Voluntary agencies and USG
- No “pariah” nation