

KATHRYN CLARK-BOURNE

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Background
Born in Colorado, raised in Colorado, Illinois and California
Colorado State University, University of Washington
Boeing Aircraft Company, WWII
Tokyo, Japan - Military intelligence	1947-1950
Environment
General Douglas MacArthur
Travels in the Far East, Egypt and Europe
University of Minnesota - student	1950-1951
State Department - INR	1952-1956
Editor, NIS (National Intelligence Survey)
Research, Far East
"Wristonization"
Teheran, Iran - Biographic officer	1956-1958
Sex discrimination
Ambassador Selden Chapin
Duties and operations
Advantages of being a female officer
The Shah and Soraya
CIA
Touring Iran
Junior Diplomats Club
Rotterdam, Netherlands - Consular officer	1959-1961
Duties
Environment
Foreign Service Institute - Hindi/Urdu training	1961-1962
Bombay, India - Consular/Political officer	1962-1967
Ambassador Galbraith
Duties and problems
Environment
Marriage and job problems
Resignation - Private sector career	1967-1975

Reinstatement in Foreign Service	1975
State Department - Task Force for Resettling Indo-Chinese	1975
State Department - Deputy director of Fisheries Affairs North Pacific Fur Seal Treaty Issues and problems American fishermen Roz Ridgeway	1975-1977
Lagos, Nigeria - Political counselor General Obasanjo Assisting in nation building Nigerian people Ethnic and religious divisions Prominent visitors Duties and operations Future of Nigeria British and French as ex-colonialists	1977-1979
State Department - Deputy director - West African Affairs U.S. interests and problems	1980-1982
Conakry, Guinea - DCM Sekou Toure illness problem Military coup d'état U.S. interests Environment Soviet relations	1982-1985
Douala, Cameroon - Consul General Operations U.S.-embassy relations	1985-1987
State Department - Inspection Corps Inspector Sherman Funk Embassy over-staffing Saudi Arabia - impressions London embassy	1987-1989