

WILLIS CONOVER

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Origins of “Music U.S.A.” And How Conover Got Started IN VOA

Evolution of the Program Over The Years

Early Signs Indicating The Program Was Successful

Over The Years Conover Visits Several Countries To Meet His Fans. First And Most Tumultous Stop: Warsaw, 1959

Some of Conover’s Experiences On His Various Overseas Visits

Conover Discusses His Philosophy of Music, Its Programming Methodology. And His Distaste For What He Considers Distasteful Productions That Pass For Music Today

Generally, Conover Has Had Strong Support For His Program From Both Directors of VOA And USIA. Cites Particularly John Chancellor

Some of Conover’s Special Programs, Particularly With Duke Ellington; Ellington At The White House And Numerous Other Times During Nixon, Johnson, Carter Administrations

The Story of How The Irving Berlin Show Celebrating Composer’s 70th Birthday, Was Put Together

And, The Update of The Program Celebrating His 100th Birthday

Conover’s Determination To Remain Non-Political On The Air

Conover’s Assistance To Foreign Musicians of Merit

Conover Compliments His Engineers – With An Occasional Exception

A Tale Of Jealousy-Induced Low Blows

Back To Discussion Of Foreign Musicians: Conover’s Help To Polish Jazz Pianist Adam Makowicz, The Outcome Of That Assistance

A Chinese Woman Who Was Still in China During The Cultural Revolution, Becomes A Conover Fan As A Listener To VOA, Later Becomes Mrs. Conover