

AMBASSADOR PETER D. CONSTABLE

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Background
Georgetown University
SAIS
Senatorial staff
Entry into Foreign Service	1957
Basic officers' course
Vigo, Spain	1959-1961
Two man post
Tegucigalpa, Honduras	1961-1964
Political officer
Alliance for progress
Coup and embassy reaction
NEA	1965-1967
Staff assistant
Raymond Hare
Israeli lobby
Arabists
1965 Indo-Pakistan war
Krishna Menon
Lahore, Pakistan	1968-1971
Situation in Pakistan
Ayub Khan Bhutto
Ambassador Oehlert
Pakistani elections of 1970
Reporting from Pakistan
Friction between embassy and consulate general in Dacca
Importance of Pakistan to Kissinger
Policy tilt towards Pakistan
NEA	1971-1972
Desk officer for Pakistan, Afghanistan, Bangladesh
Soviet threat
Rogers and Kissinger clash
Kissinger trip to China, 1971
War College	1972-1973

Vietnam US military and Foreign Service
NEA	1973-1976
Office director, Pakistan, Afghanistan, Bangladesh Kissinger and Pakistan Pakistan and Moslem world Relations with India Bangladesh and assistance Ambassador Byroade and Hummer Bhutto
DCM, Pakistan	1976-1979
Bhutto's politics January 1977 election Contacts with opposition Bhutto's anti-Americanism Embassy responses CIA America as scapegoat Pakistani and American English Overthrow of Bhutto Embassy reaction to coup Carter administration and Pakistan Communist coup in Afghanistan 1978 Execution of Bhutto
Deputy Assistant Secretary, NEA	1979-1982
Tehran embassy takeover Embassy contacts Problems with Iranians in US Negotiating with Iran Iran-Iraq War Soviets and Afghanistan Soviets and Pakistan Arrival of Reagan administration Alexander Haig Israel
Ambassador, Zaire	1982-1984
Appointment Mobutu Economic situation IMF program Vice President Bush's visit Assistant Secretary Crocker African Bureau and Frank Wisner

Director General, Multi National Force Observers

1984-1988

Sinai Field Force

Israeli and Egyptian military

Cost of multi-national force

US Army battalion

Retrospect

Foreign Service as a career