

AMBASSADOR MERCER COOK

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Background

- College experience
- Romance languages
- Foreign Service career closed to “non-whites”
- University of Paris
- Contacting writers writing about blacks
- American Society of African Culture
- First Congress of the Negro – 1956
- Appointment as Ambassador

Impressions of Niger, Senegal and the Gambia

- Gambia population
- Languages spoken

US Ambassador to Niger

1961-1964

- Niamey city
- Medical facilities
- US economic assistance
- Bridge across the Niger
- Environment
- Uranium
- Mrs. Cook’s social work

Alternate Delegate to the United Nations General Assembly

- Ralph Bunche
- Effect on Africans of Kennedy assassination

US Ambassador to Niger (continued)

1961-1964

- Niger reactions to Kennedy assassination
- French suspicions of US
- Visit of a US Senator from Louisiana
- Peace Corps
- VIP visitors
- US diplomatic and consular facilities
- Ambassador’s housing
- Niger’s Ambassador Djermakoye visit

US Ambassador to Senegal and to Gambia

1965-1966

- Interest in US racial environment
- AID program
- President Senghor visit to US

American presence
Dakar Festival
Langston Hughes' Poetry
Agriculture
Environment

General Comments on Ambassadorial career
Problems getting AID programs
Racial issues
Parents
Birth and schooling in Washington, DC
DC segregation
Scholarship to Paris
Family
Foreign Service as a career