

AMBASSADOR THOMAS J. CORCORAN

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Background
Education
Navy, World War II, Yalta Conference
Foreign Service exam
Consular Section, Barcelona, Spain	1948-1950
Dual citizenship
Consular duties
Saigon	1950-1953
Political structure of Indochina
Vientiane, Laos	1950
Duties at “one-man post”
Korean conflict and US interest in Korea
Relations with Laos
Political situation in Laos
Military and economic assistance
Phnom Penh, Cambodia	1952
Relations with French military
Democrats v. French
Hanoi	1954-1955
US relations with Hanoi
Canadians and Indians
Land reform
Registering with government and leaving Hanoi
DCM, Vientiane, Laos	1975-1978
Political situation
Freeze on money
Relations with US
Other foreign presence in US
Rumors of coup
Morale at post
Minor crises
Ambassador to Burundi	1978-1980
US interest in Burundi
Burundi’s relations with the rest of the world

Tutsis v. Hutus
Political situation and missionary activity
Medical aid
Russian and Chinese in Burundi
AID support from Washington

Conclusion

Greatest achievement
Foreign Service as a career
FS-1 “up or out”