

FRANK P. COWARD

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Biosketch
Education
Teaching
Entry into USIA
Madras, India, Education Officer	1963
University Program
Tendency of American Professors to “Preach” Rather than to Exchange Ideas Often Embarrassing
Trust established by Coward among universities permitted innovative programs
Indian Language Riots in South India: 1967
Acclimatization to India took time
Indian reaction to Kennedy assassination
Bangkok, Student Affairs Officer	1968
Cultural Officer Activities
Cultural Exchange
Growing Repressiveness of Ruling Thai Military
1973 Uprising and fall of Government
Democratization
Heavy Hand of Military Control
Special Role of Foreign Trained Thai Judiciary
Additional Observations of Five-Year Thai Experience
Burma, Cultural Affairs Officer	1973
Stopover in Bangkok as Kittikachorn Government was falling in Thailand
USIS operated under Great Restrictions under Dictatorial Socialist Oriented Government
Cultivation of Key Government Officers
Educational and Other Cultural Exchange Programs
Lessons on Doing Business in Burma
Education Minister’s Farewell Message of explanation and indirect compliment
Final Observations on a USIA Career	