

AMBASSADOR JOHN HUGH CRIMMINS

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Background
US Army, World War II
Secretariat Inter-American Defense Board
Ultra operation
Entered Foreign Service 1955
National War College
Rio de Janeiro	1957-1961
Transport and Communications Attaché
ARA 1961-1963
Director of Caribbean and Mexican affairs
ARA, Cuban Affairs	1963-1964
After Cuban missile crisis
Anglo-Cuban community friction
Cuban exile problem
Coordination of US agencies
Kennedy assassination, Cuban involvement?
US sabotage efforts in Cuba
Personalities
President Johnson and Cuban issue
Guantanamo desalinization issue
ARA, Dominican Republic Affairs	1961-1964
Trujillo
Impressions of Robert Kennedy
Impression of President Kennedy
Dominican politics
Ready Amphibious Squadron
Grasshopper Operations
Dominican Republic	1964-1969
US intervention
Johnson-Robert Kennedy Controversy
OAS quarantine
Ellsworth Bunker involvement
Ambassador- 1966-1969
General Braga
Hector Garcia-Godoy

CIA involvement in elections
MAAG
Dominican military
President Balaguer
AID mission
Embassy operation
Sugar quotas
Peso devaluation
Carter pressure on Balaguer to retire	1978
OAS distress over US intervention
“Never again” OAS attitude
Dominican-US Affairs
Ambassador to OAS
Periodic visits to Dominican Republic
Active in negotiation
ARA	1969-1973
Deputy Assistant Secretary
Organization Chile problem (Allende)
USIA “Grey Propaganda”
Covert activity
NSC involvement
Kissinger role
Orlando Letelier
US non-involvement in Chilean coup
Paranoia over US involvement in coup
Other ARA developments
Rio de Janeiro	1973
AID program
Brazil’s military role
Economic problems
Nuclear proliferation
Germany’s influence
Brazilian-German agreement
Bra unhappiness with Carter stance
Human rights
US Citizen Morris murdered
US-Brazilian relations strained
Country human rights
Breakup of US-Brazil military relationship
Department operations
CASPs	