

DEPUTY UNDERSECRETARY WILLIAM J. CROCKETT

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Background

- Born and raised in Kansas
- University of Nebraska
- US Army WWII, Korean War
- Marriage
- War Shipping Administration, Italy
- Private business

Beirut, Lebanon: Technical Cooperation Administration (TCA) 1951-1953

- Assistance Program for Lebanon
- Environment
- Agriculture
- Technicians
- Relations with Embassy
- Operations
- Palestinian refugees
- Transfer to Department of State

Karachi, Pakistan: Administrative Officer 1953-1954

- Staff
- Support for USAID
- Relations
- Military aid
- Reduction in Force (RIF)
- Environment
- Refugees
- Operations

Rome, Italy: Assistant Administrative Officer/Admin. Counselor 1954-1958

- Bill Boswell
- Operations
- Ambassador Mrs. Clare Booth Luce
- “Poisoned” Bed Room
- Congressman John Rooney
- Elbridge Durbrow
- John Jernigan
- Environment
- Administration organization
- Personnel recreation
- Embassy staff
- Housing

Jefferson Caffery
Personnel Changes

State Department: Deputy Budget and Fiscal Officer	1958-1961
Congressman John Rooney
Wayne Dwinell
Congressman H. R. Gross
Congress/State relationship
Congressional funding
Communications needs
“Bay of Pigs” speech
Congressional staffers
Rooney’s travels
State Department: Assistant Secretary for Administration	1961-1963
Circumstances of appointment
Roger Jones
Robert Kennedy
Wayne Hays
Chester Bowles
William Orrick
Environment
Operations
Deputy Under-Secretary of State for Administration	1963-1967
White House/State relations
Congress/State relations
Senator Pell
Operations Philosophy
Department’s bureaucracy
“Management of programs and objectives”
Staff re-organization
Management problems and solutions
Undersecretary George Ball
Foreign Buildings Operations (FBO)
State Department Journal
Press leaks
McCarthy disciples
Otto Otepka
Marv Gentile
Bureau of Security and Consular Affairs
Frances Knight
Abba Schwartz
Foreign Service improvements
Loy Henderson
Ernie Mannino

FSO children education
Medical Services
Family Services Program
Innovations
“Confidential funds”
Arts in Embassies program
Clem Conger
“This worked for me”
Ambassadors in Residence” program
FAO Retirement ceremonies
Foreign Service Day
CORDS program
Ambassador appointments
Bobby Kennedy interventions
Herter Commission Report
State Department concentration of authority
Comprehensive Country Programming System (CCPS)
Secretary Rusk
Management vs. substance
Clearance requirements
Kennedy letter to Ambassadors
“Cone” concept
Management skills
Specialization concept
Telecommunications systems
Cuban missile crisis
Computerization
Regional supply centers
Embassy “family” concept
“Hays bill”
“Outside” review of State Department
American Legion Blue Ribbon Commission
Communism and communists
Sensitivity training
Outside group recommendations
Action for Organizational Development (ACORDS)
Vice President Lyndon Johnson’s travel
Black FSO candidates
Ambassador Patricia Roberts Harris
Minority ambassadors
Planning-Programming-Budgeting System (PPBS)
Dick Barrett
State’s lack of management goal and strategy
Management by Programs and Objectives
Executive Review of Programs (EROP)
Central Analysis and Strategy Paper (CASP)

Overseas Coordinating Board (OCB)
Center for International Systems Research

Comments on well-known personalities

President Jack Kennedy
 Personal characteristics
 Helping “Topsy” John Rooney”
Ralph Dungan (White House)
 Ambassador appointments
 Foreign Service critic
 Expert judgment
President Johnson
 “Nightmare” world trips
 Personal prejudices
 Ego
 Vietnam
 Senegal
 Turkey
 Advice to new ambassadors
 Visit to Johnson ranch
 Humanitarian
 Loyal to President Kennedy
 Distrust of Bobby Kennedy
 Taste in art
Lady Bird Johnson
 Invariably kind and helpful
Horace Busby (White House)
 Ambassador appointments
Katie Louchheim
 Socialite
 State Department Officer

Retirement

Disappointment with the Foreign Service
Washington “turf battles”
Dean Rusk
SecState lack of interest in management
Permanent Undersecretary idea

1967