

AMBASSADOR JOHN J. CROWLEY, JR.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Background
University of West Virginia and Columbia
Youth in Southwest
Entrance into Foreign Service
Hired as FSS because of McCarthyism
Maracaibo	1952-1955
Information staff officer
Nature of work
US policy in Venezuela
Transfer to regular Foreign Service
Lima	1955-1959
Consular and political officer
Affect of trade restrictions on Peru
Efforts to compensate for trade restrictions
Responsibilities of the labor officer
US policy toward Latin America
Labor Studies at U. of Wisconsin-1959-1960
Brussels	1960-1964
Assistant Labor Attaché The labor specialty in the Foreign Service
Evacuation from Congo
Refugees from the Congo
Nature of labor work
George Meany and US policy
Communism and the international labor movement
An evaluation of US labor policy
Belgian labor leaders
Venezuela Desk Officer	1964-1966
Democracy in Venezuela
Limiting oil imports
Domestic issues and oil imports
Venezuela and Castro
Impression of Cuban threat
Quito	1966-1969
DCM
Origin of assignment
Ambassador Coerr

<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Expulsion of Ambassador Coerr The Alliance for Progress and tied aid Nature of work as Charge Instructions from Washington AID program Impression of Ecuadorian politics
Santo Domingo	1970-1974
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> DCM Prosperous time in the Dominican Republic Thoughts on 1965 intervention US interests in the Dominican Republic Impression of AID President Balaguer
Director of Northern European Affairs	1974-1977
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Origin of appointment GLOP program Nature of work Relations with Iceland Problems with US troops in Iceland
Caracas	1977-1980
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> DCM Origin of assignment Impressions of Ambassador Vaky Role as DCM Contact with Foreign Ministry US relations with Venezuela Panama Canal issue and Venezuela Resolution of oil problem
Ambassador to Suriname	1980-1982
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Origin of appointment American interests in Suriname Dealing with ALCOA Change from Carter to Reagan IMET program Impressions of Bouterse Invasion of Grenada
Foreign Service Inspector	1982-1984
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Impression of FS Inspection Corps Problems with inspections at State Overall impression of FS in 1980s

Deputy US Representative to OAS
Impression of OAS as an organization
Role of OAS in Central America

1984-1986

Conclusion
The Foreign Service as a career
Changes in the Foreign Service