

AMBASSADOR CARL C. CUNDIFF

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Background
Son of U.S. military officer
Raised in U.S. and abroad
University of Sewanee, Tennessee
Year in Paris - Sweet Briar plan
Fletcher School
American University of Beirut
Entered Foreign Service - 1966
Singapore - Foreign Service General Officer	1966-1968
State Department - Counterinsurgency Training	1968
Saigon, Vietnam - Economic Officer - USAID	1968-1969
U.S. economic support
Taxation
Environment
Terrorism
Paris, France - U.S. Mission to OECD	1970-1973
Foreign Exchanges practices
Property restrictions
OECD recommendations
Parties
Relations with other agencies
Harvard University - John F. Kennedy School of Economic Studies	1973-1974
State Department - Economic Bureau - Monetary Affairs	1974-1977
OPEC
IMF - Compensatory Financing Facility
Interagency relations
Finance and energy issues
OECD cooperation
North-South dialogue
State Department - African Affairs - Economic Policy Staff – Director	1977-1980
AID Africa program
Staff

<ul style="list-style-type: none"> African economies Lagos, Nigeria - Economic Counselor Oil revenue Development projects U.S. economic interests Foreign Commercial Service Abuja as capital issue 	1980-1983
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Abidjan, Ivory Coast - Deputy Chief of Mission Duties AID mission African Development Bank and Fund Politics U.S. commercial interests French presence Coffee Lebanese presence 	1983-1986
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> State Department - Economic Bureau - Office of Food Policy U.S. grain subsidization European competition 	1986-1988
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Niger (Niamey) Ambassador Environment Government French influence U.S. interests Peace Corps AID mission U.S. assistance Democratization Security Ethnic groups Libya relations Diplomatic corps Niger's foreign relations 	1988-1991
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> State Department - Bureau of Economic and Commercial Affairs Civil aviation issues 	1991