

WILLIAM J. CUNNINGHAM

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Background
Born and raised in California
U.S. Navy - WWII
University of New Mexico
Entered Foreign Service - 1949
State Department - Foreign Service Trainee	1949-1950
Prague, Czechoslovakia - Clerk	1950
Environment
Security
Espionage
Ambassador Ellis Briggs
Embassy evacuation
Black Monday
Paris, France - Evacuee/Clerk	1950
Seoul, Korea - Personnel Officer	1950
Chinese troop invasion
Local U.S. personnel evacuation
Hospitalization
Tokyo, Japan - Evacuee/GS Sector	1950-1951
Supreme Command of Allied Powers (SCAP)
Sapporo, Japan - Vice Consul	1951-1952
Impressions of Japan
U.S.-Japanese marriages
Japanese language trainees
Hokkaido experience
Saigon, Vietnam - General Services Assistant	1952-1954
French military defeat
Environment
Security
Vietnamese government
Military operations
French presence
Dien Bien Phu
Viet Minh

North Vietnam refugees

Phnom Penh, Cambodia	1954-1955
Environment
International Control Commission
Embassy structure
Ambassador Robert McClintock
Sihanouk
Chancery
Staff
Jim Thompson
State Department - Far East Bureau - Executive Office	1955-1956
State Department - Foreign Service Institute	1956-1957
Chinese Language Staff
Marriage
Taichung, Taiwan - Chinese Language Student	1957-1958
FSO - 1957
Course of study
Edgar Snow
Economy
China
Taipei, Taiwan - Press Translation/Director of Language School	1958-1962
Ambassador Drumright
U.S.-Taiwan relations
U.S.-ROC status of forces agreement
Embassy sacked
McCarthyism
Taiwanese language
Quemoy bombardment
People's Government of China versus Republic of China
U.S. troops to Taiwan
Quemoy and Matsu
Strait of Taiwan
Territorial waters
ROC military
Secretary of State Dulles
Chiang Kai-shek
Spencer Moosa interview
Press
President Eisenhower visit
China Democratic Party
Politics

<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Japanese legacy</li> <li>Koo Chen fu</li> <li>Opposition parties</li> <li>Lei Chen trial</li> <li>U.S. economic assistance</li> <li>Economy</li> <li>China-Soviet relations</li> <li>Mongolia</li> <li>Kennedy policy</li> <li>Drumright recalled</li> <li>McCarthy victims</li> <li>Personalities (U.S.)</li> </ul>
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>State Department - China Desk</li> <li>  Republic of China</li> <li>  UN issue</li> <li>  Security Council representation</li> <li>  Duties and operations</li> </ul>	1962-1965
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>State Department - Mainland China Desk</li> <li>  Great Leap Forward</li> <li>  Chou En-lai</li> <li>  Meo Zedong</li> <li>  Vietnam and China</li> <li>  China-Soviet relations</li> <li>  Great Cultural Revolution</li> <li>  Trading with the Enemy Act</li> <li>  Intelligence sources</li> <li>  PRC recognition issue</li> <li>  Secretary of State Dean Rusk</li> </ul>	1965-1967
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Columbia University - East Asian Studies</li> <li>  Vietnam</li> </ul>	1967-1968
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Tokyo, Japan - Political Officer/First Secretary</li> <li>  Ambassador U. Alexis Johnson</li> <li>  Relations</li> <li>  Non-Proliferation Treaty (NPT)</li> <li>  Micronesia</li> <li>  Japanese officialdom</li> <li>  Universal Postal Union meeting</li> <li>  Japanese aircraft hijacked to Korea</li> <li>  Demonstrations</li> <li>  Textile production</li> <li>  Ambassador Armin Meyer</li> <li>  Ping pong diplomacy</li> </ul>	1968-1971

China and UN
Japan-China relations
U.S. Table Tennis Association - to China
Chinese visits to U.S. issue
U.S. policy change?
Ballpoint pens
Kissinger visit to China
Ehrlichman's "The China Card"

State Department - Senior Seminar	1971-1972
State Department - Bureau of Cultural Affairs - East Asia Desk - Deputy Director	1972-1977
New York, New York - USUN - Resource Management Section	1977-1981
Retirement	1982
Houston, Texas - University of St. Thomas - Center for International Studies - Director – 1982	