

AMBASSADOR WALTER J. P. CURLEY

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Background

Yale University
U.S. Marines - World War II - Pacific Theater, China
Harvard Business School
University of Oslo, Norway
Caltex - India
Foreign Policy Association
New York Mayor John V. Lindsay
Partner, J.H. Whitney and Company
Author
New York City official

Ireland – Ambassador 1975-1977

Interest in Ireland
Background of appointment
U.S. bicentennial year celebration
Soviet embassy
Irish diversity
The Kennedy connection
Visiting Americans
IRA financing
Dublin-London embassy relations

W.J.P. Curley Venture Capital Organization 1975

George Bush Presidential Campaign in New York 1978

France – Ambassador 1989-1993

Background of appointment
Visit to Mitterrand
François Mitterrand
DCM Mark Lissfelt
DCM Avis Bohlen
Baker-Dumas relationship
Gulf War Coalition
Chevènement resignation
French and the Gulf War
U.S.-French friction
Former ambassador to U.S., Jacques Andréani
U.S.-French style differences
French-German relations

President Mitterrand's health
Mitterrand and communists
Madame Mitterrand
Prime Minister Edith Cresson
Consulates closing issue
Giscard d'Estaing
Embassy staff
Other agencies
Budget problems

Reflections on France

U.S. lack of knowledge of France and the French
Little family connection
President Chirac

Addendum

President George Bush's personal diplomacy